THE EXPERTS ARE KILLING OUR FUN

SKILL OF THE CHOSEN FEW MAKES AMATEURS FED-UP.

THE RABBITS REBEL: "BEST DEFENCE IS ATTACK."

BY WILFRID SENDALL

I have been reading about the great American Bridge battle between the Culbertsons and their rivals. I used to think I could play Bridge a little, but I shall be afraid to touch a card for months, for Mr. Culbertson says that every time I lead I throw away thousands of points.

At the rate of a penny a point, I must have thrown away enough to pay off all the reparations.

One has to be a professional to play anything these days. People are so good at games that unless one is prepared to practise for hours every day one might as well not play at all.

I tried to play tennis once. For a week or two I was very enthusiastic, but one terrible morning I played on the next court to two girls who hit the ball so hard and accurately that my feeble lobs and wild smashes looked ridiculous.

I have been too ashamed to touch a racket since.

It is exactly the same at golf. With hard practice and much concentration, I was able to go round my home course in under the hundred. Then I went to a cinema and saw one of those heartbreaking films, miscalled instructional, in which Bobby Jones demonstrates just how easy golf is. With terrific confidence he drove a ball straight through the lens of the camera! I can't compete with that. My clubs are rusting in the coal-cellar. In all sports the incredible skill of the chosen few makes the amateur's position intolerable.

An ordinary person goes to a swimming-bath on a hot afternoon, slips into the water and quietly paddles about on a breast-stroke when some Adonis, with a supercilious smile, dives gracefully in and crawls a couple of lengths at an impossible speed.

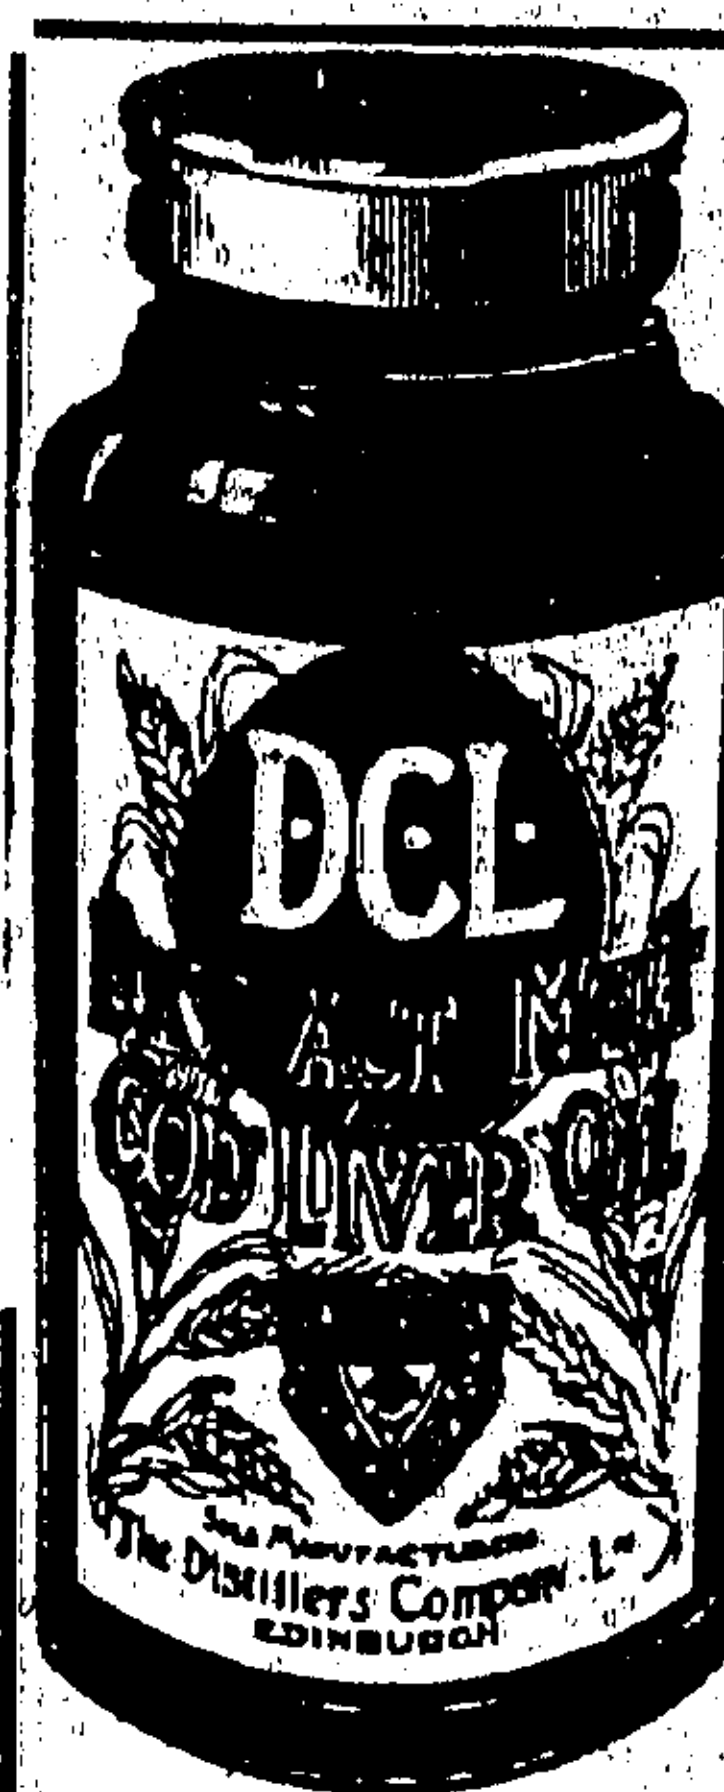

And if the ordinary man's girl witnesses the spectacle she breaks the engagement.

The only thing left for me to try is work, but if you are professional at that everyone thinks you a dull fellow, rather a bore. You hear them whisper, "Not a bad chap, but doesn't play games."

There is only one defence against this sort of thing, and it is attack.

In future, if anyone asks me if I can play tennis, I shall answer, "No, I have no time for games," and put my nose well into the air.

Possibly, in some secret place, three faithful friends and I may sit down to a game of cards. And when I trump my partner's ace we will all laugh loudly and enjoy the joke.

Better Health—More Energy

Full of vitality and energy—untiring and happy—all day long.

That is HEALTH. That is the kind of health and nerve-strength Sanatogen will give you. A well-known physician explains the action of Sanatogen in these words:

"Sanatogen is a steadily acting tonic-food, and it acts in a natural and physiological manner—recreating cells which have been broken down or devitalized by illness or overwork and building up new cells where these are needed. There is no jerry-building about Sanatogen; what it does is to go straight to the core of well-being—the cells—and to build these up one by one into a permanent and solid fabric of Health."

It is because of these cell-building properties that Sanatogen makes people thoroughly healthy. Start a course of Sanatogen, to-day, and in a few weeks you will notice its wonderful influence on your own health.

"THE SQUAW MAN."

FAMOUS PLAY REVIVED
AT QUEEN'S.

One of the most enduring and popular stories the American stage has known made its local talking picture debut last night at the Queen's Theatre, where it will be the attraction for the next three days. It is "The Squaw Man," magnificently produced by Cecil B. DeMille for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. DeMille has assembled a remarkable cast for his presentation of the famous Edwin Milton Royle play, rated with "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and "Ben Hur" among the first three most popular stage tales the U.S.A. has known.

Time has not dimmed in any way public enjoyment of this story, moving quickly between English castles and the Arizona castle country. The action has been modernized, but the background is the same as in the past, a strong gripping melodrama with a conflict of blood ties, Indian and white, that drips with "box office" potentialities.

Baxter Scores.

Warner Baxter is convincing as James Wynnegan, who after the English episode becomes Jim Curston, ranch owner. If one is to compare him with those who have played said role before, it could be well said that he does it with more finesse and savvy than his principal predecessors on the stage (William Faversham), and in silent pictures (Dustin Farnum and Elliott Dexter).

Lupe Velez is a splendid Naturch. She doesn't speak twenty words of English, but her speeches in the Apache tongue are fraught with significance. The final scene, when she sees her boy being taken to England, as the posse arrives to arrest her for the murder of Cash Hawkins, is without a doubt the finest thing this capable player has done. Eleanor Boardman scores as the villainous Cash Hawkins, and Roland Young's Sir John is up to the high standard he has set in previous pictures.

a secret love affair with a wealthy man about town.

It is this affair that brings disaster to the daughter, whose fiancé refuses to marry a girl with such a mother. The means by which the complications are solved make form an extremely lively and up-to-date story.

The picture is replete with episodes of youthful exuberance and a wide variety of luxurious settings and costumes.

"LONELY WIVES."

STAGE AND SCREEN
FAVOURITES JOIN FORCES.

"Evidence of the complete unification of the stage and screen which has taken place during the past two years through the medium of the talking screen, is given by the superior cast assembled for "Lonely Wives," a Pathe Comedy which boasts an all-star cast of players, and which was shown with highly flattering results at the Central Theatre last night.

Appearing in an amazing dual rôle is Edward Everett Horton, whose activities have been almost equally divided between the footlights and the studio incandescents. Sharing honors in the two principal feminine rôles are Esther Ralston and Laura La Plante, both favorites among film fans. Patsy Ruth Miller, another popular actress who first achieved success in the days of silent pictures, also fills an important rôle. Hearty laughs punctuated their artistic performances.

The leading character rôles of the picture are filled by Spencer Charters and Maude Eburne, both veterans of many Broadway successes, although comparatively new to pictures. Both contributed much to the evening's entertainment.

The screen play was prepared by Walter De Leon, while the director is Russell Mack. "Lonely Wives" is a drama of marital mix-ups, which old and young will enjoy.

JOAN CRAWFORD IN
"WHOOPEE" RÔLE.COMING TO QUEEN'S THEATRE.

"This Modern Age," with Joan Crawford in the starring rôle and a cast which includes Pauline Frederick, Neil Hamilton, Monroe Owsley and Robert Bosworth, will be the feature attraction at the Queen's Theatre on Thursday.

The picture was adapted from the Mildred Cram novel, "Girl Together," and was directed by Nicholas Grinde.

The picture enables Miss Crawford to return to the "whoopie" type of rôle which made her famous and which she temporarily deserted for the straight parts of "Paid," "Dance," "Fools," "Dance," and "Laughing Sinners."

The plot concerns an American girl who lives in Paris with a mother who is ultra-modern and has "ALWAYS GOODBYE."LEWIS STONE AND ELISSA

LANDI.

"The most pleasant engagement in years."

Thus Lewis Stone, eminent screen actor and the favourite of millions of movie goers summarized his work with Elissa Landi after the completion of "Always Goodbye," a Fox production, which marks the second appearance of the lovely European, stage and screen star in American films, and which will open its local engagement next Wednesday at the King's Theatre.

"The fame of this little lady," Stone said, speaking of Miss Landi, "Reached me long before I had the pleasure of meeting her. Now that I have worked with her, I heartily agree with the critics who named her, that most amazing discovery Hollywood has made in the last decade.

Miss Landi, she starred as the wondrous - wise, clever - in - love, heroine of "Always Goodbye," a girl to whom romance is a game not to be taken too seriously. She does very well, in fact, makes a decided success with her policy of dismissing lovers with a casual, "goodbye," until she loses heart and head over one man.

That man is Lewis Stone. It is his gentleness, his culture, his charm and consideration qualities she had never before found all in one man, that wins her; yet, she has so endangered her reputation with daring escapades that she is not free to accept his love. It is her holdiness in clearing her name of suspicion that brings about the stirring climax of this romantic drama.

The cast of "Always Goodbye" is a notable one. In addition to Miss Landi in the starring rôle, and Mr. Stone in the male lead, it includes Paul Cavanagh, who is also featured as well as John Garfield, Frederick Kerr, Herbert Hunston and Lumsden Hare.

The photoplay was directed by William Cameron Menzies and Kenneth MacKenna, former screen actor, who was last seen in "The Man Who Came Back" and "Sin Takes A Holiday." It was adapted for the screen by Lynn Starling from Kate McLaughlin's story.

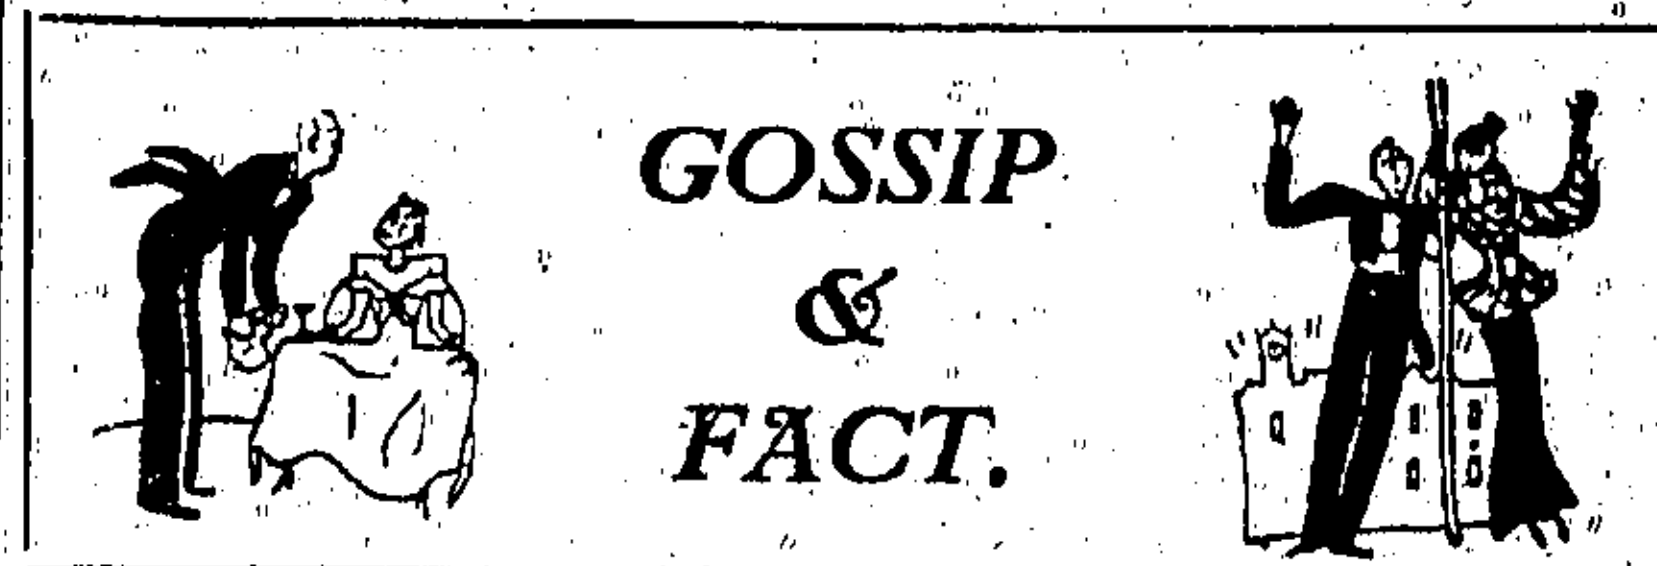

"LONELY WIVES."

CAST OF FAMOUS PLAYERS.

A decided similarity exists between the careers of Edward Everett Horton, who plays the principal rôle in Pathe's all-star farce, "Lonely Wives," and Russell Mack, who directed the picture.

Both men have functioned in the dual rôles of actor and producer before coming from the stage to the screen. Mack was well known in these joint capacities in and around New York for ten years, while Horton has had his own theatre and stock company in Los Angeles for some time. Both men have also

FACT.

Delius' Birthday.

Frederick Delius, the English composer who, blind and paralysed, listened from a bath-chair in Queen's Hall two years ago to the festival concert of his own works given in his honour, was 70 on January 29, and not 69 as he and the rest of the world had supposed.

Until November, 1929, Delius had believed that he was a year younger than actually he is. Reference books give the date of his birth as 1863. It was the late Peter Warlock, his friend and biographer, who discovered that the actual date of his birth was January 29, 1862.

Tibbett's Voice.

At the Empire in London "The Cuban Love Song," directed by W. S. Van Dyke is being shown. It is a fairly good musical show, limited, in spite of his voice, which is admirable by the personality of Lawrence Tibbett. Lupe Velez gives a fine performance, because she is naturally emotional.

There are two admirable performances by Jimmy Duran and Ernest Torrence, and the music by this time is well known everywhere. The direction by Van Dyke almost persuades me that he is worthy of the great reputation he has managed to obtain.

Larceny Lane.

"Larceny Lane," which is also being shown in London is the first starring film of James Cagney, and it was after this that he made "Taxi." "Larceny Lane" is a much better film than "Taxi," which has been drawing crowds to the Regal. It is a conventional American story of a young "bell hop" who finds it pays him to go on a "racket." This is with the help of the linen keeper in the hotel, played by Jean Blondell. Here is another good bit of direction.

"Street Scene."

A great disappointment is "Street Scene." American reports had led one to suppose that here was something unusual in the way of films.

"TONS OF MONEY."

FARCE FROM THE
"ROOKERY NOOK" STABLE.

From the same stable as "Rookery Nook," with the same producer, and the same star.

Here is another gem in the British crown. Tom Walls, as producer, and Ralph Lynn, as star, are a duo discovered by the talkies, who have helped to raise British productions to a standard of world merit.

Story! Enacial, as the story of a farce should be.

Allington is beset by creditors whom he unexpectedly learns that his brother has died. Left £30,000 which reverts to Cousin George of Mexico on death. Allington and his wife fear that the £30,000 will be swallowed up by the creditors. Allington decides to "die" and re-appear as Cousin George.

He does. But the wife of the real Cousin George, misled by his disguise, flings herself into the arms of her long-lost husband. Mrs. Allington objects and Cousin George has to die. He does. He re-appears disguised as the Rev. Ebenezer Brown.

He meets another "Cousin George" - a stock disguised as such and whom Allington believes to be the real thing. Then the genuine cousin turns up.

At that juncture the Rev. Ebenezer disappears. Later, the supposedly dead Allington turns up to claim the £30,000, only to learn that after death dues and all the rest of the fees have been paid only a few pounds are left.

Honours - almost all of them - weave themselves into one laurel wreath. This fits the brow of Ralph Lynn exactly. He is a genius of farce.

That man is the pin wheel of "Tons of Money," which is now showing at the King's Theatre. He is never out of mind, even when off the screen. Nothing to equal some of the slight subtleties of illness had ever before been on the screen. He is the Chaplin of farce.

Opposite him plays Yvonne Arnaud with all that skill and finesse we expect of her.

And the same goes for that wonderful veteran Mary Brough, who fits and knits through the film. Britain can be proud of this fine comedy.

earned their fame through a unique conception of comedy.

Appearing also under Mack's direction in "Lonely Wives," which comes to the Central Theatre shortly, are Esther Ralston, Laura La Plante, Patsy Ruth Miller, Spencer Charters and Maude Eburne.

The director, King Vidor, attempted the impossible, but it is clear that it is not to be done. Stage is stage and screen is screen - and never the two can meet.

Dynamic Acting.

David Landau, who was about as good as one could imagine on the stage, was curiously ineffective on the screen, although in other films he has been noticeable in his dynamic acting quality. Not even Sylvia Sydney got over. Some of the crowd scenes are excellent, and that is the best one can say for what should have been a profoundly interesting experiment.

Film Censors and Love Scenes.

The annual report of the British Board of Film Censors, which was published at the end of January dealt with the length and prominence of love scenes in films and other features which have been criticised, particularly by educationists.

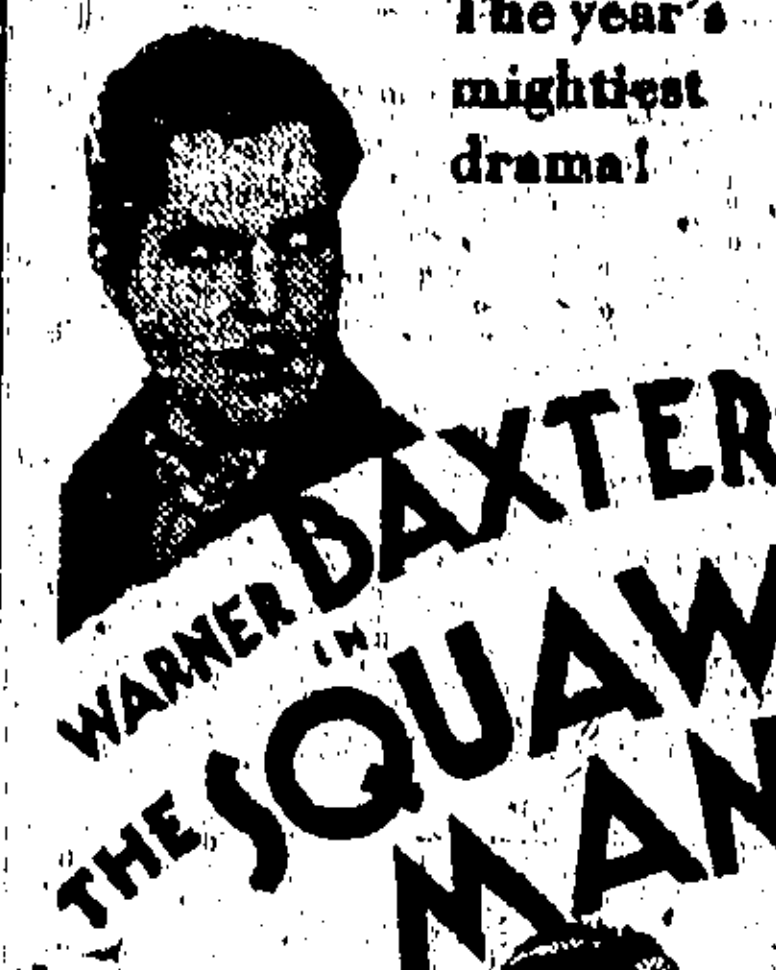

Mr. Edward Shortt, the chief censor, stated that they often issued directions to producers with regard to "these contentious matters."

Larceny Lane.

"Larceny Lane," at the Leicester-square Theatre, London, is another of those pictures designed to exploit the personality of Mr. James Cagney, who is cantering along the track that leads to permanent stardom. Already that estimable family, the Warner Brothers, are putting Mr. Cagney's name above the title of the pictures and praying that the public will endorse the faith they have in the young man. If you decide that the new star is not entitled to your money then down will come the name and a search will be made for another star. "If you say 'I like this new fellow,' James Cagney," then he will be enabled to afford a swimming bath at his home in Hollywood. His fate is in your hands.

MISSIONARY CHARGED.

PICKETING FOREIGN CLOTH
SHOPS IN MADRAS.

Madras, January 18.—Dr. Ernest Forrester-Paton, a missionary, dressed in khaddar and wearing sandals, appeared before the Chief Presidency Magistrate to-day, to answer a charge of alleged participation in the picketing of foreign cloth shops, along with six Congress volunteers, on January 15, in Rattan Bazar Road, thereby committing an offence punishable under Section 4 of the Molestation and Boycotting Ordinance.

Dr. Forrester-Paton, who is said to belong to the National Missionary Society of India, and who conducts a Mission Ashram at Tirupattur, claimed he should be tried as a European British subject, as he was born in Scotland.

It was submitted he was the brother-in-law of Mr. Duncan Millar, M.P., for East Fife. The case stands adjourned till to-morrow.

Well-Connected Man.

Madras, January 19.—The court room was packed when the Chief Presidency Magistrate resumed the hearing of the petition of Dr. E. Forrester-Paton, a Scottish missionary, charged by the city police with picketing contrary to the provisions of the Molestation and Boycotting Ordinance, claiming trial as a European British subject by a special bench.

At the outset, counsel for the defence filed a supplementary statement mentioning that the Hon. Mrs. Alexander Forrester-Paton, daughter of Lord Shaw, of Dunfermline (now Lord Craigville), was Dr. Paton's sister-in-law, having married his brother, Mr. Alexander Forrester-Paton.

The magistrate conceded that he was a European British subject.

After hearing argument, the magistrate passed an order holding that the Presidency Magistrate had jurisdiction to try the accused and posted the case for January 27, as the defence wanted time to move the High Court in the matter.

MR. CORBETT RIDES THREE WINNERS.

PROMISING JOCKEY PERFORMS HAT TRICK: BIG DIVIDEND AT CHINESE NEW YEAR MEETING.

SHANGHAI JOCKEYS TAKE PART IN RACE FOR MACAO SUBS.

[By "MORNING DEW."]

The Chinese New Year Meeting of the Fanling Hunt and Race Club will be long remembered for the large number of jockeys who rode at the meeting. No fewer than five of the visiting jockeys from Shanghai who are to ride at the forthcoming annual race meeting, faced the starter yesterday.

The crowd was thrilled by an excellent race over a mile in 'The Jamaica Plate' for subscription griffins of the Macao Race Club. The event fell to Pure Music ridden by Mr. G. U. da Roza, and the finish was exceptionally exciting, Mr. Y. S. Chang on Arminius finishing second, half a length behind, after making a spectacular effort to wrest the honours from Mr. da Roza in the final dash. Mr. McCann on Lightship finished third.

The day's sport started in a sensational manner by the defeat of a hot favourite and the success of an outsider in 'The Quail', which paid over 13-1 for a win. Mr. Corbett rode the winner and followed this success with a win on Big Ching from Hefty and Duncie. Not content with this success, Mr. Corbett went on to achieve his "hat trick" by winning the third race with Target.

CLEVER RACE BY MR. G. U. DA ROZA.

The prizes won during the afternoon were given away by Mrs. Mackie, wife of the Hon. Mr. C. Gordon Mackie one of the Stewards of the Club.

One of the most meritorious wins of the afternoon was the success of Mr. R. H. Charles on Herga which won the Baltimore Stakes, a hurdle race over a mile and a quarter for Fanling subs. Mr. Corbett, who rode Ed, at one time looked as if he would ride his fourth consecutive winner, but Ed failed Mr. Corbett over the last hundred yards of the race.

Choctaw II. won the novice race, ridden by his owner, Mr. Fischer, the pony showed a great burst of speed in the straight and accounted for two promising candidates, Bright Eyes and Brown Eyes, which finished second and third respectively.

The race of the afternoon was the sixth one in which there were no fewer than thirteen starters and the jockeys included Mr. S. Y. Chang, Mr. McCann, Mr. Rothel, Mr. F. Noodt and Mr. T. L. Wong. The best Macao sub, New King, was unplaced, the heavy weight telling against him. Mr. G. U. da Roza on Pure Music rode a clever race and led all the way, though in the run home Mr. S. Y. Chang treated the public to a great display, by bringing his mount up from seventh position to within half a length of the ultimate winner.

Cludy Eve won the last race after an interesting duel in the straight with Heliotrope Leaf and Fanling Stag. The last named showed wonderful form to finish slightly ahead of Heliotrope Leaf.

KOWLOON RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION REPORT

APPEALS FOR BATHING AND POSTAL FACILITIES.

GOVERNMENT SYMPATHETIC BUT NOT HELPFUL.

The report of the Kowloon Residents' Association for the year 1931, begins by quoting the census figures, and emphasising the size of the Peninsula town.

"The decennial census of 1931 revealed that the population of Kowloon had more than doubled during the past decade. To quote from the official census report, Kowloon—almost entirely urban, is now comparable in size with Nottingham or Bournemouth and is not far short of Newcastle-upon-Tyne where the population in 1921 was 275,000 persons."

The phenomenal development of the Peninsula during the last few years, resulting in beautifully laid out streets and thoroughfares, fine residential areas, a delightful homely atmosphere, and increasing industrial importance, is an achievement of which the Colony may well be proud. During this amazingly rapid transformation, the necessity for such an institution as the Kowloon Residents' Association, to advise on the numerous municipal questions attendant on such an expansion and to promote the welfare of the community has been apparent, and the value of its work is generally acknowledged.

The report goes on to say that:

"The year's work of your Committee has not been without its quota of disappointments and problems unsolved, but something at least has been accomplished and we are able to claim many improvements in the amenities of Kowloon as the result of our endeavours."

THE CHIEF MAINLAND PROBLEMS.

Bathing Facilities.

The disposal of certain beaches hitherto utilised for public bathing was viewed with grave concern by your Committee, and a strong protest was lodged with Government. Although the disposal of the remaining portion of Tai Wan beach was not proceeded with, the lack of adequate facilities for public bathing was apparent, and your Committee formulated a scheme for the provision of bathing pools which was submitted to Government. Although Government does not feel justified in incurring the capital expenditure involved, the Committee are confident that no difficulty would be experienced in financing the scheme by means of a loan, and that such pools offer the only solution to this problem.

Postal Facilities.

The lack of adequate facilities for postal service in the Peninsula, particularly as regards the main Kowloon Post Office, has been repeatedly brought to the notice of Government, and we are pleased to be able to report that improvements are now imminent. Mr. E. W. Hamilton on taking up the duties of Post Master General, made several personal visits to the Post Office, and subsequently afforded an interview to a special sub-committee of the Association. At this meeting many minor points of dissatisfaction were discussed, and proposals for an improvement in the service at the existing building brought forward. The Committee, while fully appreciating the Post Master General's personal interest and his efforts towards improvement of existing conditions, consider that the provision of a Post Office Building commensurate with Kowloon's size and importance is long overdue, and have renewed their submissions to Government in this respect.

Hospital Facilities.

This very important side of municipal development received the close attention of your Committee during the year, and as a result of a careful and comprehensive enquiry conducted by a special sub-committee recommendations for improvement in the facilities available were forwarded to Government. These recommendations received careful consideration, and have been adopted in part. The need for further expansion and provision of a maternity block, however, cannot be overlooked, and the subject continues to be carefully watched by your Committee. It is particularly gratifying to note that Government agrees that the establishment of a Public Dispensary in the Tsim Sha Tsui district is desirable, and we trust the necessary funds will be made available for this service.

Yau Ma Tei Ferry Wharf.

Representations were made to Government with a view to improving the road surface and traffic facilities at this important centre; as a result, permission has been granted for the parking of private cars on the unmade portion of the road, but the question of surfacing the road has been put off to 1932.

"Star" Ferry Approach.

As foreshadowed in our report for 1930, the revision of traffic control in this area, introduced in its entirety early in the year, closely follows the lines suggested by this Association in January 1930 and marks the culmination of our continuous efforts in this direction since 1926. The provision of covered ways and permission to rickshaws to pick up passengers under the covered way between the "Star" Ferry and Public Pier verandah were introduced when the actual traffic arrangements were found to be satisfactory, and the scheme as now functioning is undoubtedly a vast improvement on the old hazardous arrangements, and operates with a maximum of safety for all concerned.

Children's Playgrounds.

In July, the Association drew the attention of the Director of Public Works to the danger to children's health occasioned by dogs in the playgrounds, and in the Government Gazette of November 6th revised regulations were published which included a prohibition of dogs entering the grounds. The fact that this regulation is consistently broken has been brought to the notice of the police, and the Committee are confident that steps will be taken to stop this practice. The Middle Road Playground, brought fully into use early in the year, has proved extremely popular, and has fully justified the expenditure thereon and the efforts of your Committee, extending over many years, for its establishment.

New Territories Produce.

The Association continues to support the activities of the New Territories Agricultural Association, and as in past years two members of your committee have acted as our representatives on the committee of that body. In addition, your President and Hon. Secretary have kept in close touch with the officials of the Agricultural Association, and have co-operated with them in many ways.

As a result of a letter addressed by the Secretary for Chinese Affairs to a member of your Committee, an exhaustive enquiry into the distribution of New Territories produce was set on foot, and the sub-committee appointed were successful in establishing a liaison between the distributing "lains" and the New Territories Agricultural Association, which will undoubtedly be of considerable benefit not only to the New Territories farmers but also to the ultimate consumer in Kowloon.

Police and Fire Protection.

The necessity for additional police protection in Kowloon Tong has again been taken up with the authorities, but unfortunately the proposals were put out of the 1931 Estimates on account of financial stringency. We hope however that some provision for this service may be made in 1932.

The establishment of a portable fire pump for use in outlying districts was approved by the I.G.P., but once again "financial stringency" intervened. Here again we hope to obtain results in 1932.

Traffic.

An application from the bus companies operating in Kowloon for permission to increase fares was courteously forwarded for the Association's consideration by the Police Authorities; your Committee opposed the introduction of a "flat rate" fare, and the increase subsequently introduced was based on the stage system as heretofore.

An alteration in Bus route No. 5 was suggested to the Bus Co. concerned, who promptly introduced the proposed change, which has been found of great convenience to nearby residents.

The squeaking of brakes on motor buses, which was the source of many complaints, was brought to the notice of the bus companies, who gave the matter their usual courteous attention; some mitigation of the nuisance has been noticed, but room still exists for further improvement.

Railway Noises.

Complaints having been received of the nuisance occasioned by noises emanating from the Kowloon-Canton Railway, the Hon. Secretary interviewed the Manager of the Railway, Mr. G. Walker, who assured him that the matter was receiving their attention and that everything possible would be done to reduce such noises to a minimum. Subsequently, a pump silencer and new whistle were devised and fitted to the shunting locomotives, and members of your committee were courteously afforded an opportunity of observing the results. The diminution of noise as a result of these innovations and of the special instructions issued by the Railway Authorities was most marked, and one of the original complainants was good enough to inform the Association that as a result the noises had practically ceased to annoy.

Residential Areas.

The general amenities of residential areas continue to be one of your Committee's principal concerns, and several matters of this nature have been dealt with during the year. In regard to the collection of refuse, we are glad to be able to report that the original hours were adhered to, and that a considerable improvement has been noticed in the volume of bell ringing.

Two Good Friends Thanked.

The marvellous expansion of Kowloon referred to earlier in this report undoubtedly called for the exercise of much careful thought, technical resource, and clear foresight on the part of Mr. E. W. Carpenter, O.B.E., Assistant Director of Public Works (Kowloon), and the Committee's congratulations upon his honour conferred on him by His Majesty the King will be sure to be endorsed by all members of the Association.

In conclusion, the Committee desires to record their high appreciation of the interest and support given during the year to the Association's activities by the Hon. Mr. J. P. Braga, and all residents will be grateful to him for his continuous endeavours for the general good of Kowloon.

We thank the various Government departments for the courtesy and co-operation extended during the year, and also the Press of the Colony for their continued sympathetic support. Our thanks are also due to the Church Council of St. Andrew's Church for again allowing us the use of the Church Hall for meetings, and to all public utility companies operating on the Peninsula who have assisted in the development of Kowloon's amenities, particularly for their invaluable helpful cooperation with this Association.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

I have pleasure in submitting my report of the Accounts of the Association for the year 1931.

Receipts.

Subscriptions.—The amount collected from Members was $278 of which $260 represent 1931 account. During the year 35 new Members joined the Association, and the total number enrolled on 31st December, 1931, was 379.

NEW PAVILION OPENED.

CHINA LIGHT & POWER CO.'S SPORTS HOME.

The new pavilion of the China Light and Power Company in King's Park was officially opened on Saturday when a large gathering was present to see the ceremony which was performed by Mr. A. H. Compton.

Welcoming the guests, Mr. W. J. Brown, Secretary of the Club, said that he looked with pride and satisfaction on the new pavilion, which compared favourably with those of other clubs in the Colony.

After Mr. Compton had declared the pavilion open, the Hon. Mr. J. P. Braga addressed the gathering. He expressed surprise at seeing a Club House, which he considered second to none in the Colony. He complimented the Club on the site they had secured, and congratulated them on having the wisdom to broaden the scope of the Club by admitting Associate Members, and on the fact that the control of the Club was still in the hands of the employees.

Mr. Stafford accorded a vote of thanks to the Directors, the Hon. Mr. J. P. Braga, Messrs. A. H. Compton, L. Kadoorie, and C. A. da Rosa, who were present at the function.

Previous to the official opening, a sports programme for children was held, after which prizes were presented by Mrs. F. E. Murray. A dance was held in the Club House in the evening.

The Gazette contains the draft of an Ordinance to provide for and regulate Industrial and Reformatory Schools.

This Ordinance was one of the two drafted by the Committee appointed to report on the measures required for the "institution" of Juvenile Courts in Hong Kong.

As stated in the Committee's Report, it contains all the main provisions of the old Reformatory Schools Ordinance, No 11 of 1901, which it repeals, and it provides generally for the institution and regulation of such establishments.

It is closely modelled on the English law and the Straits Settlements Ordinance No. 47, with only such amendments as the Committee considered necessary to suit local conditions.

Payments.

The total amount of expenditure was $335.65, of this sum $200 was for a donation to the New Territories Agricultural Association.

Balance.

The Balance on hand at 31st December, 1931 was $1,333.92 against the previous year's Balance of $1,373.37.

The amount on Fixed Deposit with the Hong Kong & Shanghai Banking Corporation was $1,300,000.

Subscriptions outstanding at the end of the year amounted to $682. The thanks of the Association are due to Mr. John Fleming, C.A., for auditing the accounts, free of charge.

SOMEWHAT EASIER IN SWATOW

EVACUATION OF JAPANESE WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

APPEAL FOR WAR FUNDS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Swatow, February 10.

The situation in Swatow is slightly easier. Apparently the exodus is stopped, and some of the refugees have returned to their homes while few are leaving the port. Though peaceful at the moment the majority of the Chinese believe that dark clouds will soon loom again, and they are inclined to be optimistic.

Military Vigilance.

The local soldiers are maintaining their "strategic" positions and have not relaxed their vigilance. A sort of martial law prevails in the vicinity of military headquarters, and around the Japanese Consulate. No Japanese are allowed to pass out of this area after seven in the evening, and armed policemen have attempted to search Japanese going into and coming out of the Consulate, being suspicious of arms smuggling.

Strong patrols of soldiers march about everywhere. Some sandbags and stone barrages have been erected on the pavement in one part of the main road next to the Commercial School, in which a new regiment has been billeted. These soldiers belong to General Lee Yong Kiang of Canton and they replaced two regiments which left the previous day owing to the communistic scare.

General Lee and the "Reds."

On the 5th General Lee Yong Kiang arrived from Canton and was met by high officials. The whole party drove to the Military Club where a reception was held in his honour. The approach of the Communists is again causing no little apprehension here and in the surrounding districts. In some quarters it is said that Lee has come here to tackle the situation himself, but the writer believes his visit is connected with the Sino-Japanese relations.

Japanese Evacuation.

About sixty-five Japanese women and children, including a small number of Formosans and Koreans, were repatriated last Monday, on the advice of their Consul. As a result of the fighting in Shanghai, at the moment Japanese nationals are experiencing a certain amount of difficulty in procuring food supplies locally and, as a strike is being engineered it was thought expedient to evacuate the women and children. Furthermore, the Japanese Consul believed that consequent upon the evacuation the possibility of a Sino-Japanese incident would be diminished. The Chinese do not see the point, however, and fear that this move was a prelude to bad times. Most domestic servants in Japanese employ have already left but a batch of Formosans has been imported as relief. The luggage of the departing Japanese was transported on board by 20 Formosans and other compatriots without interference, and quite independent of Chinese labour.

"War" Funds Needed.

The various guilds and associations have been asked to subscribe for military expenses, but the response is not so encouraging. The merchants are not keen because a prolonged boycott means a corresponding and protracted loss in business.

LITERARY BURGLAR.

CHOSE COMPLETE SETS OF BEST BOOKS.

A burglar with a discriminating taste broke into a Reigate (Surrey) bookshop and stole books and furniture.

He entered at the back of the shop, climbing a wooden fence and forcing a window. Apparently he had been some time on the premises, for complete works had been selected.

Complete sets were missing of Kipling, Hardy and Barrie, and other expensive volumes were taken. Works of a lesser value were replaced on their shelves.

A police constable, who was on patrol at 4 a.m., was attracted by a noise and heard a motor engine. He examined the premises, and a cordon of police surrounded the shop, but the burglar had already escaped.

HONG KONG, FEBRUARY 15, 1932.

SHANGHAI'S PREDICAMENT.

The dominating events of the last few days are the landing of large bodies of Japanese troops at Shanghai, and China's further appeal to the League of Nations for assistance. China's method is a request for a special meeting of the Assembly of the League, and an invoking of certain Articles of the Covenant. No one imagines, however, that a resolution of delegates, collected in about a month's time from all the League Powers, great, medium and small, is going to stay the Japanese military machine. The question of intervention as China and Japan know well, rests with the Great Powers, or in other words, with the League Council, acting in unofficial collaboration with the United States.

The two practical problems, what will happen to Shanghai, and will the Powers intervene remain unanswered. The Japanese are preparing a great offensive against the Chinese position in Shanghai and a senior admiral and a distinguished general are in charge of the operations. Heavy howitzers have been in action, but beyond that we do not know the strength of the Japanese forces. The Chinese delegate to Geneva said that there were 25,000 Japanese troops on the Shanghai front. This was denied by the Japanese representative, but there is no doubt that big reinforcements have arrived to deal with the very formidable opposition.

If we are doubtful about the strength of the Japanese forces, we are utterly in the dark regarding the numbers of Chinese opposed to them. There has been time for the Chinese higher command to mass large bodies of troops around Shanghai. So far the brunt of the fighting has been borne by CHEN MING SHU's 10th Army, but the Chinese have every motive in concealing their real strength. Surprise is the great asset of warfare. The answer to the conundrum as to China's strength at Shanghai lies, however, in the extent to which Chinese politicians and War Lords have been able to achieve unity in the face of the foreign menace. If the general protestations of patriotism and the sinking of disagreements were sincere then we may be sure that big armies have been assembled. Again and again the fat

"defend Shanghai" has gone forth. Heartened by the success of the resistance the Chinese leaders have announced their intention of holding the city to the last, and a stout defence is expected, and will be demanded, by the whole Chinese nation.

If, however, China's generals and statesmen have been merely playing their old game of angling for personal place and power during the past month, each war-lord will have quietly kept his own troops around him, leaving his rivals to batter their heads against Japan. The test will come when the Japanese launch their offensive. If the Chinese defenders are swept like leaves before a gale it will be safe to assume that the back of the Chinese resistance has been broken and that the 19th Army has been left to its fate. That the Japanese offensive will be successful is to be expected. Their aviators and intelligence service will have supplied all necessary information; the invaders will know what they are up against and what troops they need for success. The signs to look for will be whether the fighting involved was a skirmish or a pitched battle.

If the Chinese are driven out of Shanghai it will be announced by their own Government that there was a retirement according to plan. No side ever admits defeat. At the worst there has been "a slight reverse," or "a temporary retreat from positions of no strategic significance." Continued retreats are not convincing. If the Chinese are unable to fight at Shanghai, it will be safe to assume that the future weapon against Japan will be passive and not active opposition, and the former presents a considerably tougher proposition.

If big scale fighting occurs at Shanghai, the only hope of the Settlement escaping serious damage will lie in quick and decisive victory to one side or the other. When a battle hangs in the balance no consideration is given to third party interests. Only when the situation is well in hand is it possible for the victors to be moderately humane and to observe "the laws of war."

The danger to Shanghai is, therefore, real and imminent. The fighting can only be stopped by a display of force far in excess of that of either belligerent. The Powers have made no sign of intervention on such scale either on behalf of Shanghai or to vindicate the principles to the League of Nations. There can be no intervention unless the Governments of the Powers concerned can act in complete accord, with every confidence in each other, and with the full support of the great democracies of which they are the elected representatives. We all know the conditions under which intervention could be made, but whether it is possible to realize such conditions is another matter. The Shanghai affair, and the whole question of the Sino-Japanese clash can only be controlled by an exercise of strength requiring great national sacrifices by the League Powers. The alternatives have arisen of making those sacrifices or of letting Far Eastern affairs take their own course.

LESSON SERMON.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG.

"Soul" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in the Churches of Christ, Scientist, on February 14. The Golden Text was—"The Lord is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him. It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord." (Lamentations 3: 25-26.)

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible—"O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard; which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved." (Ps. 98: 8, 9.)

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the "Christian Science" textbook, "Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "So long as we believe that soul can sin or that immortal soul is in mortal body, we can never understand the Science of Being. When humanity does understand this Science, it will become the law of Life to man—even the higher law of Soul, which prevails over material sense through harmony and immortality." (p. 311.)

Tale of the Day.

Judge: "What have you to say for yourself?"
Prisoner: "I say I wish I was in a place where there are no traffic cops."
Judge: "Granted; 60 days!"

Fact.

A family of children were left in charge of their grandparents and a remarkably plain German governess. One day at lunch a small boy asked loudly: "Grandfather, do you think Fraulein is pretty?"
Grandfather instantly replied: "George, one thinks these things, but one does not say them."

"Thunderclaps Surprising."

Thus writes a London journalist: "A business firm has received a copy of a surprising document which is being circulated among European troops by the agitators of Shanghai. It is headed: 'Celebration for the Uprise of 19th December, 1927, as Canton to English and American Soldiers, Sailors and Tailors in Shanghai.'"

"It starts 'Dear Brothers,' and follows the normal lines of Soviet propaganda in urging the Chinese 'proletariat' to establish its own Soviet Government. But there are one or two delicious passages. 'Thus: 'The day of 12th December, 1927, is the first time for Chinese Proletarians to get up independently to establish their Soviet Government of Workers, Peasants, and Soldiers of China as thunderclaps surprising all over the world.'"

The Bandit Army.

"Here is another extract which shows how sensitive the Soviet agitators feel about being mistaken for bandits."

"Let those liars, the world capitalist-imperialists and their running dogs scold Soviet China as a 'bandit district' and Chinese Red Army as 'bandits or communist-baiters,' but we proletarian foreign soldiers like them so scolded class brothers because we can see now they are not bandits anyhow."

"It appears from this that even the devoted followers of Stalin have some difficulty in detecting the difference between their colleagues and bandits, so I think that those who have not the benefit of their proletarian technique might be pardoned for making similar mistakes."

"It is curious how one encounters exactly the same sort of jargon about proletarians and capitalists, whether it is dispensed by members of the British Communist Party or by bemused Chinese coolies. Perhaps it is the only sort of jargon intelligible to that level of intelligence."

★ Local Notes and Events ★

It is notified that at the expiration of three months the Hock Hai Steamship Co., Ltd., will be struck off the register and the company will be dissolved, unless cause is shown to the contrary.

A Japanese, living at 19, Wing Lock Building, drove to the Nippon Club pavilion on Friday and parked his car outside the S.O.A.A. pavilion. On returning, he found that nails had been driven into the two front tyres.

A free planting ceremony will be held on February 26 at 3 p.m. at St. Stephen's College, Mrs. W. T. Southern having kindly consented to lead in the ceremony. Dr. Yau Man Kwong of Hing Hau will distribute the prizes the same afternoon.

Finger Print Law.

A man against whom a charge of theft was dismissed at West Ham asked that his finger prints should be destroyed. "I am not a criminal," he said.

"You are entitled to that, and it will be done," the magistrate told him.

Philosophy and Wit.

The late Edward Clodd, philosopher and free-thinker, had a pretty wit. There is one of his funniest:

Little bits of paper
Headed I.O.U.
Bring the Christian daily
Nearer to the Jew.

In a letter he told a story about Methusalem, who was a bit touchy about his age. Having admitted to a friend that he was 775, he was pleased with the flattering reply: "You don't look a day older than six hundred." He himself rejoined that, though an octogenarian, he never lost that sprightliness of mind, which caused him to take an interest in such matters as the lessening popularity of the fox-trot.

Belgium to Ask Part of Young Plan Total.

Payment by Germany in goods and raw materials of a definite percentage of the sums agreed upon in the Young Plan, is the formula for the Lausanne reparations conference adopted by the Belgian Government in a special session at Brussels. The Belgian Government will accordingly press for payment of part of the sums originally due, the amount to correspond closely to the war debt payments to be made to the United States.

Exchange Wants New Members.

The Manchester Royal Exchange is advertising for members.

The Master of the Institution, Mr. Hedley Lucas, gave this explanation: "We are looking out for members as part of our propaganda to extend our influence," he said. "The Royal Exchange is the meeting place for the cotton industry, but it is also open to any class of trader."

"We have" members who come from all parts of Lancashire, Yorkshire, Cheshire, Derbyshire, Nottinghamshire and Staffordshire and even from London. We are seeking to bring in the traders who are starting new industries in Lancashire, and already many have joined."

One On Einstein.

There is a story current that in the days when even a street-car ride in Germany cost some hundreds of thousands of marks, Professor Einstein of relativity fame had an argument with a conductor over the correctness of the change. The conductor finally convinced Professor Einstein that he was wrong, and when Einstein apologized, the conductor said: "Never mind, sir. That's all right. I can see that arithmetic is not your strong point."

New Highway Planned.

A quicker connection between Germany and Denmark is planned by the Royal Automobile Club of Denmark. In the near future the route will be over Røby Haven, and thence to Grossbrode on the island of Femarn, which would be the port of disembarkation in Germany. From this point cars would proceed to Lübeck, over a new wide highway, and further on over the River Elbe, where a new bridge is under construction.

Jack Payne Leaves the B.B.C.

At Mr. Jack Payne's request the contract for him and his orchestra, instead of continuing until 1933, will end in March next.

Mr. Henry Hall has been appointed director of the B.B.C.'s new dance orchestra following Mr. Payne's departure.

Mr. Payne, speaking to a reporter, said:—

"When my band leaves Savoy Hill about March 13 it does not mean that we shall not broadcast to the public again. We shall do so from time to time. My future arrangements include a trip to New York."

An M.D. Speaks.

"So far as medical value is concerned, physicians could dispense with whisky, wine, and other alcoholic beverages altogether."—Dr. Charles Mayo.

We know a physician with a red nose; presumably his sense of medical values requires readjustment.

Another Victory at Flodden.

The historic battlefield of Flodden Field is not to be crossed by electric cables as was first planned by the Central Electricity Board.

Border residents objected, and a protest was made on their behalf by the Glendale Council, with the result that the line conveying electricity to the South of Scotland is to be diverted at an additional cost of £700.

From the Files.

Looking Back 25 Years.

Among the arrivals by the German Mail on Thursday were Sir Nathaniel Nathan, brother of H. E. the Governor, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Darby.

Though Shanghai may not be regarded by all as the "model settlement" of the Far East, there can be no disputing the fact that it is one of the most progressive communities, if not the most progressive, on this side of the world. We cannot think of a place entitled to enter competition with it for this honour. The latest information of the municipal finances appears to warrant this claim for pre-eminence. Seven years ago, the estimated annual income as it appeared in the budget for 1900 was under a million taels. For 1908 it is reported to " verge on two million taels."

On February 1st the China Review ceased to exist; and the phoenix arising out of the ashes of the review is called "The China Critic."

Hong Kong Daily Press, February 15, 1907.

Looking Back 50 Years.

The steamer Japan, which left here yesterday for the Straits and Ceylon, had amongst her passengers, Lady Hennessey, and Mr. Cleverly, former Surveyor-General for the Colony.

We hear that the Hon. W. H. Marsh, C.M.G., Colonial Secretary, and Mrs. Marsh will arrive here in the commencement of March or possibly at the end of this month. The Hon. Geo. Philippo and Mrs. Philippo were to leave England early this month.

CHINA TO RESIST INVASION

WHOLE NATION DETERMINED

STATEMENT BY WANG CHING WEI

SHANGHAI FRONT UNUSUALLY QUIET

JAPANESE EXCESSES ADMITTED IN HONGKEW AREA

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NANKING, February 14.

The Central Daily News publishes a statement by Mr. Wang Ching Wei in which he declares that the Japanese invasion will be resisted by a determined nation; "We may occupy our cities, but every man and every place will resist."

"Japan may send 3,000,000 troops to China but she will find it impossible to subjugate us; our armies may be defeated but our nation will remain unconquered. Until Japan gives up the idea of forcing China by armed aggression to surrender her territorial and administrative integrity and her sovereignty, there shall not be, and cannot be, direct negotiations between the two countries."

SHANGHAI PASSES QUIET SUNDAY

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

SHANGHAI, February 14.

Shanghai was unusually still the whole of Sunday, excepting for Chinese desultory trench mortar firing at dawn which the Japanese artillery silenced two hours later, after which quiet reigned.

Snipers are still active in the northern area.

Although the Japanese crossed the Woosung Creek on Saturday they retreated at sundown.

A Japanese party of 150 men crossed the Creek at one point where they fought fiercely for eight hours and escaped the danger of annihilation in the nick of time by the arrival of relief.

On Sunday forenoon a motor truck, belonging to the Ningpo Transportation Company, collided with a lorry bearing a large body of Japanese bluejackets, completely overturning the vehicle and severely injuring many of the marines. The driver was arrested and taken to the Headquarters of the Japanese Gendarmes for examination, as foul play was suspected.

SHANGHAI COMMISSION'S REPORT TO LEAGUE

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

GENEVA, February 14.

A reign of terror resulted in Hongkew following the Japanese occupation and a state of open war exists, says a Report of the League's Shanghai Commission cabled to the League this afternoon, signed by Count Ciano, who adds that the offensive is entirely in the hands of the Japanese whose declared object is to capture the Woosung Forts and drive all Chinese troops to a considerable distance from Shanghai.

The Report says that almost the entire non-Japanese population has fled from the Hongkew area.

The Japanese Consul admitted that excesses had been committed by his nationals when the feeling ran high and chaotic conditions prevailed, but the situation had greatly improved and a considerable number of undesirable Japanese had been deported to Japan.

The Commission adds that it is impossible to determine which side broke the truce.

"SPECTACULAR DEVELOPMENTS" EXPECTED!

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

Tokyo, Feb. 14.

"Spectacular developments" as existing to stabilise the situation in Manchuria are anticipated shortly, according to a Japanese Press despatch from Changchun, which reports that Chinese leaders in Manchuria are assembling for the purpose of arranging final details for the formation of a new and independent state.

General Hsi Hsin, the Governor of Kirin, has already passed through Changchun en route to Mukden. General Ma Chen Shan is leaving Harbin for Mukden on February 16.

LOYANG, Feb. 14.

First Lieut. W. Y. Wyman, Language Officer of the American Military Attaché's Staff at Peiping, arrived here to-day. He is calling this afternoon on General Chen Chi Chong, the Garrison Commander of Loyang.

GENERAL UYEDA'S VIEWS

SHANGHAI, Feb. 14.

When interviewed by Reuter, Lieut-General Uyeda, Commander of the newly arrived 14th Division totalling approximately 12,000, stated that he had no intention of taking an immediate offensive, but hoped that negotiations would result in the Chinese forces withdrawing far enough from Shanghai to render the "security and safety of the settlement assured."

It is learned that the 9th Division, which arrived off Woosung in six transports to-day, is now steaming up the Whangpoo, and their landing will be effected to-morrow morning.

The transports are accompanied by four cruisers and seven destroyers.

All now seems ready for a big Japanese offensive designed to clear out all Chinese from Chapei and Woosung.

It is rumoured that the Japanese General Uyeda is commanding the newly-arrived division, and that he will deliver an ultimatum to the Chinese. But the Chinese official reports say that they need no ultimatum, as the Japanese have been fighting for two weeks now, and the Chinese will "resist with all their might further assaults by Japanese."

CHIANG RETURNS TO PUKOW

Pukow, Feb. 14.

Marshal Chiang Kai Shek arrived here this morning from Loyang, where he had conferred yesterday in Hsuehchowfu with Wang Ching Wei and Feng Yu Hsiang.

Much significance is attached to his return.

RUSSO-JAPANESE AGREEMENT

MOSCOW AND TOKYO DENY REPORT

Moscow, Feb. 14.

The Daily Express story of a Russo-Russo-Japanese Treaty is officially denied here.

Tokyo, Feb. 14.

The Daily Express's report of a secret agreement between Japan and the Soviet is categorically denied by the Japanese Foreign Office, which adds that the rumour has no foundation whatever.

DENIED BY SOVIET EMBASSY AT LONDON

LONDON, Feb. 14.

The Soviet Embassy states that there are no grounds whatever for the Daily Express' assertion or the details given.

U.S. TO REMAIN NEUTRAL

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

New York, Feb. 14.

The United States Government does not favour the Japanese suggestion for the demilitarisation of Shanghai, according to the New York Times' Washington correspondent, but might favour the establishment of a neutral zone at Shanghai for the protection of the International Settlement. But it is understood that the Government will not press for its adoption owing to its desire not to take sides in the Sino-Japanese dispute.

The insistence for the establishment of a neutral zone would make it appear that the United States were siding with Japan, since it would involve the Chinese forces retreating from Shanghai while the Japanese forces remained.

JAPANESE GUNBOATS AT SWATOW

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

CANTON, Feb. 14.

A military communiqué from Swatow received here to-day, states that the situation there is again becoming tense, as a result of three Japanese gunboats steaming into the Harbour last Wednesday, without first informing the Municipal Authorities. The presence of these Japanese men-of-war is causing considerable anxiety among the populace there. Thus far, however, no trouble has arisen.

Mayor Wong Tze Sun lodged a protest with the Japanese Consul-General in Swatow, declaring that the sudden appearance of Japanese gunboats in the harbour might create danger and misunderstanding. The Municipal Government should first be informed of the coming of Japanese gunboats so as to obviate any misunderstanding. Should any trouble arise because of the presence of these un-called-for Japanese gunboats, the Japanese Consul-General would have to shoulder the responsibility. One way to relieve the tension, the Mayor pointed out, would be for at least two out of the three Japanese gunboats to move out of Swatow harbour.

The Mayor in conclusion reiterated his settled policy of protecting Japanese lives and property,

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY MEETING

COUNCIL REFUSES RESPONSIBILITY

[DEUTER AND BRITISH WIRELESS.]

GENEVA, Feb. 12.

The reluctance of the League Council to call a special meeting of the Assembly on China's invoking Article Fifteen was again shown this evening when the Council, of twelve, met to deal with China's note, which is considered to be embarrassing.

After a two hours' discussion, the Council decided not to take the initiative in calling a special meeting of the League Assembly. The Chinese delegation must assume full responsibility for convening the Assembly.

The terms of the resolution giving effect to the Council's decision was not drafted. A special committee has, therefore, been appointed in order to elaborate the text.

Public Meeting.

The Council will meet again on Monday when the subject will be publicly ventilated.

By the terms of Mr. W. W. Yen's letter this morning, the Chinese Government formally requested that the Sino-Japanese dispute be referred to the League Assembly and stated that only in the event of the Council taking the initiative would the Chinese Government be prepared to withdraw the application.

All delegates, except those of China and Japan, attended the Council meeting of to-night. As China's request was based on the application of Article Fifteen of the Covenant, the Council of the League will continue its discussions of the Far East question in the light of Articles Ten and Eleven.

How to Establish Peace in the Far East.

LONDON, Feb. 12.

The Executive Committee of the League of Nations Union to-day passed a resolution urging that a meeting of the League Assembly be summoned and that the League, co-operating with the United States, exert whatever diplomatic or economic pressure is necessary to re-establish peace in the Far East.

The suggested measures might include an embargo upon the export of arms and ammunition and the exclusion from the world's ports of the goods of whichever party to the dispute continues to reject the five Anglo-American peace proposals.

Breaking off Relations.

It is also urged that, if necessary, the League States refuse financial facilities and withdraw their diplomatic representative from the country which refuses to accept the proposals.

The League of Nations Union meanwhile trusts that States which are members of the League will send the Chinese and Japanese Government a Note referring to the last paragraph of Mr. Stimson's Note of January 7, and declaring that they will never recognise any situation or agreement which may be brought about by means contrary to Covenant and other Treaty obligations to which they, as well as China and Japan, are parties.

"GOOD-BYE TO LEAGUE" IF MR. LANSBURY HAS HIS WAY

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Feb. 14.

"If the League is unable to restrain one of its members from the sort of conduct Japan is guilty of, we must bid the League good-bye," declared Mr. Lansbury when addressing a meeting in London, called to protest against coercion in India.

Mr. Lansbury added, however, that it is time the British Empire cleared up its own doorstep and made a start thereon in India.

DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE

DR. YEN'S PLEA TO NATIONS

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

GENEVA, Feb. 14.

At this morning's session, Dr. Yen declared that the fate of the Disarmament Conference depended on the issue of the Manchurian dispute. He pleaded that the nations should fulfil the international obligations to which they had subscribed, and said that China was prepared to accede to the League Assembly's proposal for an armaments truce as a preliminary. China agreed to the principles laid down by Sir John Simon for arms reduction, and the distinctions as regards weapons, primarily intended for aggression, and supported Mr. Tardieu's declaration that disarmament alone was insufficient to ensure peace.

Armaments and Security Not Synonymous.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSY, Feb. 14.

When the Disarmament Conference was resumed at Geneva to-day, Mr. Arthur Henderson, President, asked delegations to supply separate concrete suggestions so that these could be handed to the Standing Orders Committee who could then work out an agenda.

The Canadian delegate, Sir George Purley, said that, while Canada appreciated a strict relation of armaments to national security, experience had taught them that armaments and security were not synonymous.

The Latvian Foreign Minister said that Latvia already had considerably reduced her military budget and diminished her period of service in the military force. No factories now made war material in Latvia.

Count Albert Apponyi said that Hungary had no armaments to reduce. Such armed forces as she had were used for maintaining internal order and guarding the frontier.

THE REPARATIONS ISSUE

BRITAIN AND FRANCE REACH TENTATIVE AGREEMENT

[REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.]

LONDON, Feb. 14.

A preliminary tentative agreement has been reached between Britain and France regarding the scope of the Reparations Conference to be held in June, according to statements made in official quarters in London.

It is reported from Paris that M. Laval has finally approved of the agreement on which a statement will be issued this evening at Geneva.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Feb. 14.

It is now officially announced, that the Lausanne Reparations Conference has been adjourned to June, and that as the result of negotiations between Britain, France, Italy, Germany, Belgium and Japan the object of the Conference will be to agree to a lasting settlement of the Reparations problems, also to take necessary measures to solve the economic and financial difficulties which are responsible for the present crisis.

The Government's decision has been reached in the hope of easing the international situation.

UNEMPLOYMENT FUND

ENORMOUS ADVERSE BALANCE

[REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.]

LONDON, Feb. 14.

The adverse balance of the Unemployment Fund is more than £75,000,000, according to a review of the figures by the Auditor-General, for the year ended last March, published only this morning.

Payments from the Fund during the year 1931 were £10,000,000, which is £60,000,000 more than payments in the preceding year.

Benefits have increased by £46,000,000 and the excess of the total expenditure over the total income amounted to £29,000,000.

ART TREASURES RECOVERED

FOUND IN DAMAGED CONDITION IN JUNK SHOP

[REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.]

LONDON, Feb. 14.

World famous paintings, magnificent carved ivories and other art treasures worth, when stolen, £27,000, have been recovered by the police in a badly damaged condition from a junk shop in East London.

An art collector when rummaging in various junk shops came across a picture, obviously the work of a famous master. The canvas was yellow with age and had obviously been hacked from its frame. He informed the police whose investigations led to the discoveries.

It is believed the treasures include part of a robbery which was carried out in the West End house of Earl Minto.

IRISH ELECTIONS

CONFIDENCE IN THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

[REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.]

LONDON, Feb. 14.

As the election campaign, which so far, has been the most peaceful and the most polite in the history of Ireland, draws to a close in a perfect tempest of oratory, there is evidence of a remarkable growth of confidence in the Republican Party as it requires only a small reshuffling of seats to upset the Cosgrave Government and give De Valera victory.

De Valera urges the abolition of the Article making it obligatory for members to take the oath of allegiance, also the renunciation of the Treaty, and declares that the best interests of Britain and Ireland will be served if they "live as friendly, independent neighbours."

Mr. Cosgrave declares that the Republic Government would release the Terrorists and Communists and begin a series of quarrels with England over nothing.

It is possible that if the Republicans get no majority but become the largest Party, they will form an alliance with Labour, resulting in the latter applying the brakes on the Republican policy, as Labour is in favour of the Treaty.

IMPERIAL AIRWAYS

REVIEW OF PROGRESS IN 1931

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSY, Feb. 14.

During last year, the aircraft of Imperial Airways flew 1,510,887 miles and carried 30,581 passengers and 1,684,970 (1) pounds of mail and freight.

A statement reviewing progress during the year says that eight (7) new four-engined aeroplanes, each developing 2,500 horse power, had now been delivered and constitute a fleet of the largest and most luxurious passenger aircraft in the world.

Three new four engined all metal flying-boats, each weighing when loaded, fourteen tons, are operating on the Mediterranean sections of the Empire air line.

Orders had been placed for eight new monoplane air liners for the Cairo-Oppo route, each equipped with four engines and having a maximum speed of 150 miles an hour and a cruising speed of 120. With these machines operating, the air journey from London to Cape Town will take nine days or less.

The demolition of Waterloo Bridge and the erection of a new bridge, at a cost of £1,295,000, has been decided upon by the Improvement Committee of the London County Council.

EUROPE STILL SHIVERING

MANTLE OF SNOW ON DESERT

[REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.]

LONDON, Feb. 14.

Not only Britain but the whole of Europe is shivering through an Arctic blizzard which is sweeping as far east as Persia and Iraq.

In Barcelona, where yesterday's snow was the first for twelve years, people are skiing in the streets, while the yellow Iraqi desert was turned white by a mantle of snow.

Communications with Teheran are paralysed, the roads being impassable, and postal services are disorganised as the result of the snow.

The cold snap in Paris has caused the return to popularity of muffs and gaiters for women.

NATIONAL POWER SCHEME

RAPID PROGRESS LAST YEAR

RUSSY, Feb. 12.

The Central Electricity Board, which was created five years ago, has made remarkable progress on the national power scheme. The scheme contemplates transmission lines totalling 4,970 miles, and at the end of 1931 more than 2,400 miles had been built. The lines in actual operation aggregate 910 miles.

The progress made last year was so rapid that construction for the country as a whole will probably be completed in 1933. The grid will be set in operation during the current year in Central Scotland and probably by the end of 1933 in other areas.

During last year, the Board placed contracts of £20,000,000 in connection with the scheme.

CRAIGENGOWER DEFEATED BY NAVY.

LT.-COMDR. MUNDY HITS LEAGUE LEADERS' BOWLING FOR A CENTURY.

INDIANS SCORE FINE WIN OVER RECREIO: KING'S PARK TEAM OUT OF THE RUNNING FOR HONOURS.

Something of a sensation was caused in cricket circles over the week-end when the Royal Navy, who up till then had not shown very good form, beat Craigengower Cricket Club, leaders in the race for championship honours in the senior division. A feature of this match was a brilliant century by Lieut.-Comdr. Mundy. This defeat seriously jeopardises the Valley Club's chances of winning the shield this season though they still have a chance of doing so. Apart from this game, two other senior matches were played and one of them resulted in a tie between Civil Service and University, while the other, Club-Artillery, ended in a draw.

In the second division too, a match, which had a very important bearing on the league, was decided and the Indians have reason to congratulate themselves on their win over Recreio for at one time they looked as if they were going to collapse before the latter's attack. They eventually won by 39 runs. The Police and University scored a win over Craigengower and Civil Service respectively, while the Kowloon seniors had the better of their match with the "Colts" and the Club test to the R.E. & S.

LOCAL FOOTBALL.

CLUB BEAT ST. JOSEPH'S IN CLOSE GAME.

Five matches were decided in the Football League over the week-end of which three were senior division games. Nothing very startling, however, occurred, most of the games ending very much as expected. The Club scored a narrow win over St. Joseph's while Kowloon beat the Borderers and the Police took full points from Club de Recreo.

In the second division the Navy shared points with the 12th. Heavy Battery while Recreo scored seven goals without reply from St. Joseph's in their third division match. The game between the Engineers and Royal Air Force in this division was postponed.

Below we give the results at a glance and the revised league tables:—

RUGBY.

KOWLOON LOSE TO ROYAL NAVY.

At King's Park on Saturday Kowloon Rugby Club lost to the Navy (smaller ships) by 9 points (three tries) to 3 (1 goal).

Kowloon were handicapped by the absence of one of their forwards who arrived late and from the commencement, the Navy side took up the offensive. Ten minutes before the interval, Packer made a brilliant dash from the centre of the field and scored for the Navy, but the kick at goal failed. Ferguson then broke through the Navy defence and scored a fine try which Wilson converted, making the score at half-time 5 to 3 in favour of the home side.

The second half saw several determined attacks by the Navy three, which resulted in Alder scoring two tries in quick succession, neither of which, however, were converted. Neither side could get through after this, the game ending in a 9-5 win for the sailors.

The teams lined up as follows:—
Smaller ships XV:—Baker, Branson, Packer, James, Herron, Rees, A. B. James, Hawkins, Moir, Al-
